

Traditional Irish Tunes: Keys, Chords, Lyrics, and Recordings

Introduction

This report provides an analysis of 38 traditional Irish tunes, focusing on common performance keys, typical chord progressions used for accompaniment, associated lyrics, and representative recordings. The information is compiled from reputable traditional music databases such as TheSession.org and irishtune.info, chord and tablature resources like Ultimate Guitar, folk music archives, and academic sources where available. Each tune is addressed individually, verifying or correcting the initially provided key and detailing its musical characteristics and performance context.

Tune Analysis

The following sections detail the findings for each tune listed in the query. Keys are verified against database information and common practice; chord progressions represent typical accompaniment patterns, often for guitar unless otherwise specified; lyrics are provided where applicable; and YouTube links offer examples of performances.

1. Báidín Fheilimí

- Tune Type: Song (often taught as a children's song or nursery rhyme).
- Verified Key(s) & Mode: G Major. The user-provided key of G Major is confirmed by chord charts ¹ and general practice for this song.² While arrangements exist in other keys (e.g., D Major for dulcimer ³, or potentially C Major ²), G Major is standard. The mode is Ionian (Major).
- Common Chord Progressions (G Major):
 - Verse: G C | G Am D | G C | C D G (or G D | G Am D | G C | D G for verse 2/3 structure).¹ Primarily uses I (G), IV (C), V (D), and ii (Am).
 - Chorus (Curfá): G C D | C Em D G | C D | C D G.¹ Primarily uses I (G), IV (C), V (D), and vi (Em). The harmony involves basic I, IV, V, ii, and vi chords, typical for a major key folk song.⁴
 - Instrument Context: Chords are suitable for guitar accompaniment.¹ Dulcimer arrangements also exist.³
- Lyrics/Instrumental Status: Song with well-known lyrics in Irish. The song tells the story of Feilimí (Phelim) Ó Baoill's small boat (báidín) and its journey to the islands of Gola (Gabhla) and Tory (Toraí) off the coast of Donegal, where it ultimately wrecks.⁵ It originates from the County Donegal Gaeltacht and is often taught to children.⁵ Several versions of the final verse exist.⁵
 - Lyrics (Irish): ¹Báidín Fheilimí d'imigh go Gabhla,

Báidín Fheilimí is Feilimí ann.
Báidín Fheilimí d'imigh go Gabhla,
Báidín Fheilimí is Feilimí ann.

2. Slieve Gallon Braes

- Tune Type: Song (Air), Emigration Ballad.
- Verified Key(s) & Mode: D Mixolydian or D Major. The user-provided key is D. Sources show varied keys depending on arrangement:
 - D Mixolydian is indicated by ABC notation derived from a Dolores Keane recording.¹⁴ Mixolydian mode (major scale with a flattened 7th) is common for airs.
 - D Major is used in an Easy Piano arrangement.¹⁵
 - C Major / A minor is used in a mixed ensemble arrangement.¹⁶
 - E Major/minor context is discussed for banjo accompaniment (Peggy Seeger).¹⁷
 - The most common traditional setting for the air appears to be D Mixolydian.¹⁴ Performance as a song might adapt the key for vocal range.
- Common Chord Progressions:
 - Based on D Mixolydian (Implied from melody¹⁴): Likely uses D (I), G (IV), C (♭ VII), Am (v), potentially Em (ii). A simple progression could be: D | D | G | C | G | D | D | G | C | D.
 - Based on D Major (from piano arrangement¹⁵): Would use D (I), G (IV), A (V), Bm (vi).
 - Instrument Context: Associated with the McPeake Family (often featuring uilleann pipes).¹⁸ Arrangements exist for piano¹⁵, harp¹⁹, mixed ensemble¹⁶, and banjo.¹⁷ Guitar accompaniment often uses relative Nashville notation (I, IV, V, vi)²⁰ or specific tunings/capos.¹⁷

- Lyrics/Instrumental Status: Song. An emigration song from the Sperrin Mountains region (Slieve Gallion) in County Derry/Londonderry.¹⁶ It laments leaving home due to high taxes or landlord pressure, often associated with the Famine era.¹⁸ Several lyrical variations exist.

- Lyrics¹⁸:(Optional opening verse)

My name is Joe McGarvey as you might understand²¹
I come from Derrygennard and I own a farm of land. ²¹
But the rents were getting higher, and I could no longer pay²¹
So farewell unto you bonny, bonny Sliabh Gallen braes. ²¹
As I went a-walking one morning in May¹⁸
To view yon fair valleys and mountains so gay¹⁸
I was thinking on those flowers, all doomed to decay¹⁸
That bloom around ye, bonny, bonny, Slieve Gallen braes. ¹⁸
How oft in the morning with my dog and my gun¹⁸
I roamed through these mountains for joy and for fun. ¹⁸
But those days they are all over and I am far away. ¹⁸
So farewell unto ye, bonny, bonny, Slieve Gallen braes. ¹⁸
How oft in the evening and the sun in the West¹⁸
I roved hand in hand with the one I love best. ¹⁸
But the hopes (or dreams) of youth are vanished and now I'm far away¹⁸
So farewell unto ye, bonny, bonny, Slieve Gallen braes. ¹⁸
It's not the want of employment at home¹⁸
That caused us poor sons of old Ireland to roam. ¹⁸
But those tyrannising landlords, they would not let us stay, (Or: the taxes getting higher...) ¹⁸
So farewell unto ye, bonny, bonny, Slieve Gallen braes. ¹⁸
Farewell to old Ireland the land that is so green²¹
To the parish of Lissan and the cross of Ballynascreen. ²¹
May good fortune shine upon you, when I am far away²¹
And a long farewell to bonny, bonny Slieve Gallon Brae. ²¹

3. Buachaill ón Éirne

- Tune Type: Song (Air). Instrumental versions also exist as a Double Jig and Hornpipe ²⁶, but the query likely refers to the song.
- Verified Key(s) & Mode: G Major (common traditional key), but frequently arranged/performed in C Major, C# Major (Capo 1 on C shapes), Bb Major (Capo 3 on G shapes), E Major.
 - The user query lists G Major. G Major is cited as the typical key ²⁸, and the related jig version is often in G. ²⁶
 - However, chord/tab sources show significant variation for song arrangements: C Major ²⁹, C shapes capo 1 (sounding C# Major) ³⁰, G shapes capo 3 (sounding Bb Major) ²⁸, and E Major (Celtic Thunder arrangement). ³¹
 - This wide range suggests the key is often chosen based on the singer's vocal range or specific instrumental arrangement needs rather than a strict adherence to one traditional key for the song version. The mode is consistently Major (Ionian).
- Common Chord Progressions: The harmonic structure is relatively consistent across keys, primarily using I, IV, V, and vi chords.
 - Based on C Major ²⁹: C F G F C | C F C Am G | C Am F C G | Am F G F C (Verse lines, approximate).
 - Based on G Major (transposed from C): G C D C G | G C G Em D | G Em C G D | Em C D C G (Verse lines).
 - Instrument Context: Guitar chords (often capoed) are provided in several sources. ²⁸ Piano/Vocal/Guitar arrangements also exist. ³¹ The tune is famously associated with uilleann pipes ²⁸ and artists like Clannad and The Corrs. ³⁰
- Lyrics/Instrumental Status: Primarily a song, sung in Irish Gaelic. The lyrics depict a boastful young man from the River Erne area claiming great wealth and charm. ²⁹
 - Lyrics (Irish): ²⁹Buachaill ón Éirne mé 's bhréagfainn féin cailín deas óg.
Ní iarrfainn bó spré léithe tá mé féin saibhir go leor.
'S liom Corcaigh 'a mhéid é, dhá thaobh a' ghleanna 's Tír Eoghain.
'S mura n-athraí mé béasaí 's mé n' t-oidhr' ar Chontae Mhaigh Eo.
Rachaidh mé amárach a dhéanamh leanna fán choill.
Gan choite, gan bád, gan gráinne brach' ar bith liom.
Ach duilliúr na gcraobh mar éadaí leapa os mo chionn.
'S óró, sheacht m'anam déag thú 's tú 'féachaint orm anall.
(Additional verses exist, e.g.,)
Buachaill maith bó mé, mo leo, níor chleachtas riamh é,

Ach ag imirt 's ag ól le hógmhna deasa na sléibhe.
 Má chaill mé mo stór ní dóigh liom gur chaill mé mo mhéin,
 'S ní mó liom do phógsa anois ná an bhróg a bhí orm inné.
 A chuisle 's a stór, ná pós an seandúine liath,
 Ach pós an fear óg, mo leo, má tá sé beo ar feadh bliain.
 Nó beidh tú gan chlann, gan sliocht chun do chumhaidh a dhéanamh,
 A shilfeadh na deora go trom tráthnóna nó ar maidin.

- English Translation: ²⁹I'm a boy from the Erne and I could charm a nice young girl.

I would not ask for a dowry (fortune of cows) with her, as I am rich enough myself.

I own Cork, as big as it is, two sides of the glen, and Tyrone.

And if I don't change my ways, I'm the heir to County Mayo.

I will go tomorrow to make ale in the wood.

Without a cot, without a boat, without a pinch of malt (or gruel) with me.

But leaves of the branches as bedclothes over my head.

And O! Sevenfold life of my soul to you, as you look across at me.

(Additional verses exist, e.g.,)

A cowherd, my pet, I've never been accustomed to be,

But playing and drinking and (being) with nice young women on the mountain.

Even though I lost my wealth, it's not as though I lost my senses.

And your kiss is no more to me now than the shoe I wore yesterday (or for a year).

My darling and my love, don't marry the grey old man.

But marry a young man, my pet, even if he only lives but a year.

Or you will be without children, without descendants to mourn you,

Who would shed their tears heavily at evening or at morning.

4. The South Wind (An Gaoth Andheas)

- Tune Type: Air / Waltz. Originally an air, it is very frequently played as a waltz in sessions. ³⁸
- Verified Key(s) & Mode: G Major. The user-provided key of G Major is strongly confirmed by multiple sources listing notation, chords, and database entries. ³⁸

While variations in A or F are noted as existing ⁴¹, G Major is the standard. The mode is Ionian (Major).

- Common Chord Progressions (G Major):

- A Part: G | G | D | D | G | C | G | G ³⁸
- B Part: C | C | G | G | G | G | Am7 | D followed by C | C | G | G | G | D | G | G ³⁸
- The progression uses the primary chords I (G), IV (C), V (D), and occasionally the ii (Am7), typical for a G Major waltz or air.
- Instrument Context: Played on a wide variety of traditional instruments including fiddle, flute, whistle, pipes, concertina, harp, banjo, mandolin, guitar, and keyboard/piano accordion.⁴¹ Chords provided are standard for general accompaniment.³⁸

- Lyrics/Instrumental Status: Primarily played as an instrumental air or waltz. However, lyrics are associated with the tune, attributed to Donal Meirgeach Mac Conmara (18th century, County Mayo).⁴⁴ These lyrics personify the South Wind traveling from Munster to Connaught. An unrelated poem by Charles Ives also shares the title.⁴⁵ A vocal version was recorded by...source or G Major. The user query lists D Major. However, multiple sources providing notation or chords indicate A Major as a common key.⁴⁸ A G Major arrangement for flatpicking guitar is also documented.⁵¹ An E Dorian variant also exists.⁵² D Major may be played by some fiddlers but is less represented in the available sources for notation/chords. A Major appears most prevalent in documented forms.

- Common Chord Progressions:

- Based on A Major ⁴⁹: Simple I-IV-V progression.
 - A Part: A | A | A | D | A | A | D | E (or similar, e.g., A | A | D | E7 | A | D | A | E7 A)
 - B Part: A | A | A | E | A | A | D | E
- Based on G Major (Arrangement ⁵¹): More complex, using passing chords: G | Am | Bm | C | G | Am | D | G (Hypothetical based on description). The source notes this uses substitutions beyond a basic G-C-D pattern.⁵¹
- Instrument Context: A common polka tune played on fiddle, accordion, etc..⁵² Guitar arrangements exist, with ⁵¹ specifically discussing a flatpicking approach with a "rock and roll strum" rather than typical bluegrass backup, and the use of chord substitutions (G, Am, Bm, C, D).

- Lyrics/Instrumental Status: Instrumental Polka. Simple, likely modern or mnemonic lyrics exist, primarily for children's versions.⁴⁹

- Lyrics (Mnemonic/Children's): ⁴⁹Oh the britches full of stitches,
Oh the britches full of holes,
Oh the britches full of stitches,
Oh the britches full of holes.

(Repeated for B part or with variations like "Clap your hands...")

6. Fanny Power (Planxty Fanny Power / Mrs. Trench)

- Tune Type: Planxty / Air (sometimes played as a Waltz). Composed by Turlough O'Carolan (1670–1738).
- Verified Key(s) & Mode: G Major. The user-provided key of G Major is overwhelmingly confirmed as the standard key by numerous sources covering guitar arrangements, database entries, historical collections, and modern sheet music.⁵⁶ Historical versions and alternative arrangements exist in C Major, D Major, and A Major.⁵⁷ The mode is Ionian (Major).
- Common Chord Progressions (G Major):
 - Basic: Primarily uses I (G), IV (C or Am as ii substitute), and V7 (D7).
 - A Part Example: G | C | D7 | G | G | C | D7 | G
 - Arranged: O'Carolan's compositions allow for richer harmony. Arrangements might include passing chords, inversions (like G/F#, G/E), or substitutions common in harp or keyboard settings.⁵⁹
 - B Part Example (Variable): May involve G | G/F# | C | G | C | Am | D7 | G or similar patterns exploring related minor (Em, Am) and secondary dominant ideas.
 - Instrument Context: Composed for harp, it is frequently played on harp ⁵⁷, piano ⁶⁰, guitar (often fingerstyle, sometimes in Drop D tuning ⁵⁶), fiddle, pipes, whistle, and various ensemble combinations.⁵⁷ The choice of chords often reflects the arranging instrument (e.g., fuller chords on piano/harp, specific voicings/basslines on guitar).
- Lyrics/Instrumental Status: Primarily instrumental. Composed by O'Carolan in honor of Frances (Fanny) Power, daughter of his patrons David and Elizabeth Power of Coorheen, Co. Galway.⁶⁴ The tune is also known as "Mrs. Trench," her married name.⁵⁸ Original Gaelic lyrics by O'Carolan likely existed ⁶³ but are not commonly performed. Later, unrelated English lyrics by Thomas Davis (c. 1845) were set to the tune.⁶⁵ ...source ⁶⁶

7. Julia Clifford's Polka

- Tune Type: Polka. Associated with the Sliabh Luachra fiddler Julia Clifford.
- Verified Key(s) & Mode: G Major (most likely intended tune) or D Major. The name "Julia Clifford's Polka" applies to multiple distinct tunes.
 - The user query lists G Major. ABC notation sources ⁶⁹ and a chord chart source ⁷⁰ confirm a common polka by this name in G Major.
 - However, irishtune.info lists a well-known polka (ID 1009) also called "Julia Clifford's" primarily played in D Major.⁷¹ It also lists another (ID 5346) in C Major.⁷² Julia Clifford's own website lists multiple polkas associated with her, including one explicitly paired with Dennis Murphy's No. 1.⁷³
 - Given the ABC notation provided ⁶⁹, the G Major version is the most likely match for common session understanding based on that notation. The D Major version ⁷¹ is also widely known under this name. This report focuses on the G Major version.
- Common Chord Progressions (G Major):
 - Based on melody ⁶⁹ and chord chart ⁷⁰: Simple I-IV-V progression.
 - A Part: G | G | G | D | G | G | C G | D G (or similar)

- Verified Key(s) & Mode: D Major. The user-provided key of D Major is confirmed by all specific sources found.⁷⁶ The mode is Ionian (Major).

- Common Chord Progressions (D Major):
 - Standard I-IV-V polka backing is typical. Based on the melody in ⁸²:
 - A Part: D | D | G | A | D | D | G | D A D (or similar)
 - B Part: A | D | G | D | A | D | G | D A D (or similar)
 - Instrument Context: Played on common polka instruments like accordion, fiddle, whistle, banjo, mandolin.⁷⁶
- Lyrics/Instrumental Status: Instrumental (Polka). No lyrics associated with this traditional tune were found. Modern songs with similar titles ⁸⁵ are unrelated.

9. The Liltin' Banshee

- Tune Type: Jig (Double Jig). Also known by titles such as "The Miller of Glanmire".⁸⁸
- Verified Key(s) & Mode: A Dorian. The user-provided key/mode (Am/Ador) is confirmed. Sources consistently identify A Dorian as the standard mode.⁸⁸ While sometimes referred to simply as A minor in sessions, the harmony (particularly the use of a D major chord) points definitively to A Dorian (A B C D E F# G A).⁹⁰ Variants in G Dorian or E Dorian exist but are less common.⁸⁸
- Common Chord Progressions (A Dorian):
 - A Part: Am | G | Em | D ⁹⁰
 - B Part: Am | G | Em | D ⁹⁰
 - The progression uses the tonic minor (i - Am), subtonic major (VII - G), dominant minor (v - Em), and subdominant major (IV - D) chords characteristic of the A Dorian mode.
 - Instrument Context: Played on standard jig instruments like fiddle, flute, whistle, pipes, banjo, mandolin, concertina, guitar, bodhran.⁸⁸ Chord chart ⁹⁰ provides basic guitar/keyboard voicings. Tin whistle tabulation is common.⁸⁹

 - Instrument Context: Associated with fiddle (Martin Hayes⁹⁶, Tommy Peoples⁹⁶) and guitar (Dennis Cahill⁹⁶, fingerstyle arrangements⁹⁹, electric guitar backing⁹⁸). Also played on mandolin⁹⁷, flute, harp, cello.⁹⁶ The suitability for richer chords suggests its use in both session and more arranged contexts.

11. The Humours of Drinagh

- Tune Type: Jig (Double Jig). Also known as "Farewell to Gurteen".¹⁰⁹
- Verified Key(s) & Mode: D Major. The user query lists G Major, but sources consistently indicate D Major as the standard key.¹⁰⁹ ABC notation confirms D Major (K:Dmaj) and includes chords fitting D Major.¹¹⁰ Recordings often feature instruments pitched accordingly (e.g., C# pipes sounding D, Eb flute relative to D flute).¹⁰⁹
- Common Chord Progressions (D Major):
 - Standard I-IV-V progression. Based on chords in¹¹⁰:
 - A Part: D | D A | D | D G | D | D A | D G | A D
 - B Part: D G | D G | D G | D G | D G | D A | D G | A D (Emphasizes I and IV, returns via V)

12. The Concertina Reel

- Tune Type: Reel. The name likely refers to a source player (e.g., Willie Clancy's mother¹¹⁷, John Kelly¹¹⁸) or the tune's feel.
- Verified Key(s) & Mode: D Major (most common version) or E Dorian. The name applies to several related but distinct settings.
 - The user query lists D Major. This corresponds to the most widely circulated version, often associated with Willie Clancy or Bobby Gardiner.¹¹⁷
 - A well-known version associated with John Kelly is in E Dorian.¹¹⁸
 - Another John Kelly version exists in G Major.¹²²
 - Variants in A Major also exist.¹¹⁷
 - This report focuses on the common D Major version.
- Common Chord Progressions (D Major):
 - Based on melody and chords in¹¹⁷: Primarily uses I (D), V7 (A7), IV (G), and ii (Em).
 - A Part: D | D | A7 | A7 | D | D | D G | A7 D (or similar)
 - B Part: D | D | Em | A7 | D | D | D G | A7 D (or similar)
 - Instrument Context: Played on all standard reel instruments. Named for the concertina, it is popular on that instrument¹¹⁷ as well as fiddle, flute, whistle, pipes, banjo, accordion, etc..¹¹⁸
- Lyrics/Instrumental Status: Instrumental (Reel). No lyrics associated with this tune were found.¹²⁰

13. The Dunmore Lasses

- Tune Type: Reel. Also known as "The Road to Knock" or "Morrison's Reel".¹²⁷
- Verified Key(s) & Mode: E Dorian or E Minor (Natural/Aeolian). The user query lists Em/Edor.
 - E Dorian (E F# G A B C# D E) is often implied by context and common practice for E minor reels [¹²⁸ (mentions Em key but describes typical Dorian feel), ¹²⁹]. Chords provided in ¹³⁰ (Em, D, G, Am7) fit E Dorian (i, VII, III, iv).
 - E Natural Minor (E F# G A B C D E) is suggested by learntinwhistle.com¹²⁷ (as it uses the G major scale notes) and Flutetunes¹²⁸ (listing key as E minor). The difference lies in whether C or C# is used; many settings avoid C/C# altogether, making the mode ambiguous.¹²⁹
 - Common session practice often treats E minor tunes as E Dorian.
- Common Chord Progressions (E Dorian/Minor):
 - Based on E Dorian¹³⁰:
 - A Part: Em | Em | Em | Am7 D | Em | Em | Am7 | D (Uses i, iv, VII)
 - B Part: Em D | Em | Em D | Am7 D | Em | Em | Am7 | D (Uses i, VII, iv)
 - Alternatively, using G Major based chords (for E Natural Minor): Em (i), G (III), C (VI), D (VII).
 - Instrument Context: Common reel played on fiddle, flute, whistle, pipes, banjo, etc..¹³⁰
- Lyrics/Instrumental Status: Instrumental (Reel). No lyrics associated with this tune were found.¹³¹
